Top-Ranked Texas Becomes Isleworth Collegiate Invitational Champion Jordan Spieth leads Longhorns to victory

WINDERMERE, Fla. (UCFAthletics.com) – For the third consecutive time this year, Texas found itself atop the leaderboard on the final day of competition and easily captured the title in the eighth annual Isleworth Collegiate Invitational hosted by UCF and Texas Tech. The Longhorns once again proved their No. 1 ranking as Texas finished -8, and carded a -6 for the final round at Isleworth Golf & Country Club.

This is the second Isleworth Collegiate Invitational victory for the Austin team who claimed their first ICI title in 2006. The Longhorns topped the 15-team field led by freshman Jordan Spieth, who carded a tournament-best score of 11-under 205 for his first collegiate title. Overall, Texas placed its top-four golfers in the top-20, including Dylan Frittelli, who finished runner-up to Spieth (-3 213).

Spieth closed out the three-day event by tying Georgia's Harris English's 2007 tournament record of 11-under 205.

"There is a reason why a lot of pros practice out here," Spieth said. "This is a phenomenal facility. It really does feel like a PGA Tour venue."

With Texas well out in front on the third day, the fight for second place came down to the very last hole between LSU and North Florida. Securing a final round score of 10-over 298, the Tigers were able to hold off the Ospreys who finished one stroke back in the final round and four for the tournament (+22, 886). The top four golfers for LSU finished one shot apart for the week, with Andrew Presley leading the way with a score of +5 221 for 16th place. Rounding out the top five was Indiana and California who tied for fourth after finishing with matching scores of 24-over 888.

The Isleworth Collegiate Invitational was created in 2004 to give collegiate players and coaches the feel of a PGA Tour event. The tournament provides collegiate golfers the opportunity to compete on one of the toughest courses in the nation against the best players in the game.

Isleworth's golf course is a par-72, 7,544-yard championship course originally designed by Arnold Palmer and Ed Seay, later redesigned and enhanced by Steve Smyers. Isleworth consistently ranks as one of the longest and most difficult courses in the state of Florida and is home to a number of world-renowned PGA professionals.
